

Savannah Families Have a New Resource Available to Help Them Cut Thousands Off the Cost of College!

Seth Kovensky has recently been chosen as an advisor for Fox College Funding, LLC in the greater Savannah area. Fox College Funding (www.FoxCollegeFunding.com) is a national company that specializes in providing customized planning to help families with a college-bound high school student significantly reduce their college expenses. Seth is a uniquely trained specialist who provides proprietary combinations of tax reduction, cash flow and academic strategies that, depending on a family's situation, may save them tens of thousands of dollars over four years. Fox College Funding has successfully reduced families' college expenses by millions of dollars.

Seth is a Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) practitioner and President of Live Oak Financial Services. While he has been a professional financial advisor for nearly ten years, Seth was first introduced to formal financial counseling and planning in 1994 as he was assigned the role of NMCRS (Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society) Officer for the US Navy destroyer on which he was assigned. Founded in 1904, the mission of NMCRS is – in part – to provide financial, educational and other assistance to members of the Naval Services of the United States... and to receive and manage funds to administer these programs. He is a member of the Financial Planning Association and a lifetime member of the Navy League. Born in Pittsburgh, PA and a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Seth now considers himself 'a converted Southerner.' Seth is married to the former Sarah R. Greenberg of Savannah, GA and they have two beautiful children, Hannah and Alexander.

Seth shares his enthusiasm about college funding planning with all the individuals, families, institutions and corporations he encounters. Having completed the Fox College Funding comprehensive training program, Seth is uniquely equipped to share insider tips and helpful ideas from which individuals and groups can gain immediate benefit.

Seth is qualified to discuss:

- How a family can pay for college with pre-tax dollars and have the IRS pay a big piece of their college expenses
- How to send a child to a private university for the same or less than the cost of a state school
- How a family can get FREE money from colleges even if they don't qualify for "need-based" financial aid
- What a student should and should not do before applying to college so they are offered more money
- Keys to greatly increasing a student's chances of winning private scholarship awards
- How college students can avoid graduating from college with tons of debt (currently over $18,000 per student according to Nellie Mae, a subsidiary of Sallie Mae.)

Many families with college-bound children worry about the rising cost of college and how they will be able to pay for it. Seth's unique ability to discuss little-known remedies make him a much sought-after speaker.

To celebrate the addition of this new service to his practice, Seth is making available a FREE report, "How to Have the IRS Pay a Big Piece of Your College Expenses" to anyone who requests it by calling (912) 629-6251 or e-mailing him at SKovensky@FoxCollegeFunding.com.
